IVEY`S CONDOS

127 N TRYON ST · CHARLOTTE, NC 28202 UNITED STATES

It is doubtful that when Joseph Benjamin Ivey built his department store in 1924 he ever conceived that a number of Charlotte's families would move in and call the place home. In 1995, that is exactly what happened when the building was gutted and converted to a condominium community known as Iveys Townhomes. With the Ivey's sitting right on Tyron St. there is probably no place you can live in Charlotte that puts you closer to the action. These condos offer a concierge/security attendant, secured parking, and views of Center City or the historic Fourth Ward neighborhood. The Iveys Townhomes remain one of the few condo communities located directly on the main street of Center City Charlotte and offer residents easy access to the exciting draw of living in the center of Charlotte.
