LIBRARY LOFTS

1004 BALTIMORE · KANSAS CITY, MO 64105 UNITED STATES

Urban living has just reached perfection. Library Lofts is an extraordinary example of functional, innovative living spaces for the discriminating city dweller. These uniquely styled loft living spaces feature spacious closets, large windows, original hardwood floors and skylights. Community amenities include a clubhouse and a pool. This is a community where life is celebrated, not merely lived. The Library Lofts project is adjacent to the downtown library and faces the library book mural located on the parking garage on 10th street. Library Lofts consists of two adjacent buildings in the redeveloped Library District; the ten story east building known as the Dwight Building and the six story west building known as the Burnap Building. These two historic buildings are now home to a distinctive collection of one and two bedroom loft apa...
