Central Square is delicately poised in the middle of the three most exciting districts of Singapore. Be spoiled for choice by the rich cultural heritage at Chinatown, or the hip bars and restaurants along the riverside of Clarke Quay. Alternatively, the Central Business District a stone's throw away houses many niche themed café to watch the well-heeled executives walk briskly by. Accentuate your experience with the Peranakan elements prevalent throughout the residence. Notice the corridors' decorations of wood carvings, hand painted ceramic tiles, and even traditional beaded slippers (also known as "Kasut Mamek"). Scenic room views include those of the residence's manicured tropical rooftop garden, colonial styled subordinate courts, and even some authentic Peranakan terrace shophouses. Each of our 127 apartments has a fully-equipped kitchen, cable television and wireless broadband Internet access. Our recreational facilities – swimming pool, outdoor Jacuzzi, gym and BBQ pits – set in a beautifully landscaped garden all aim to please the most discerning guest. And our comprehensive Business Centre and executive lounge on the second floor also cater to business travellers.

In the area

- Clapsed between the precincts of Chinatown, Clarke Quay and the Central Business District, Central Square Residences is suited for both the business and leisure guest.
- With Clarke Quay MRT within a brisk 5-minute walk, you are also well connected to the rest of Singapore.
- For a quick bite on a tight schedule, walk no further as small restaurants serving up both local and international fare are aligned along its walkways on the ground floor.
- Be adventurous and shop for groceries at the famous wet-market in Chinatown or the niche Japanese supermarket at Central (above Clarke Quay MRT).
