

A Serviced Apartment

Canary Central Apartments are located in the heart of Canary Wharf, Europe's most vibrant and fastest growing business district. The area is renowned for its impressive hub of global commerce and financial services and is home to many large international banks and corporations. Canary Central is a new development comprising of stylish one and two-bedroom apartments boasting a living space over twice the size of the average hotel room. The fashionably furnished apartments have a reception and dining area, fully equipped kitchen and bathroom. As well as the modern décor, all apartments are fitted with modern communication and audiovisual technology. Canary Central also features a private health spa, with heated indoor pool, sauna, jacuzzi and gymnasium. The local area has a wide selection of bars and some of the best restaurants in town, as well as a newly developed and expanding shopping centre: Jubilee Place. The City is just across the river and London's famous West End is less than twenty minutes away.
